1079 MARK Street Welcome to 1079 Mark Street—a charming farmhouse-inspired colonial featuring 3 bedrooms and 2.5 bathrooms. Quietly tucked away at the end of the street, this home offers a rare sense of privacy. Step inside to a beautifully designed kitchen with classic white shaker cabinets, hardwood flooring, new light fixtures, granite countertops, and stainless steel appliances. The living room features hardwood floors and is filled with natural light, creating a warm, inviting space. Upstairs, the spacious primary bedroom includes a private ensuite, while two additional bedrooms and a full bath provide comfort for family or guests. The basement offers ample storage, a dedicated laundry area, additional room for an office or more storage and large living area. Powerful mini-split unit for AC. Cozy up in the family room around the natural fireplace, or step through the doorwall to a fully fenced backyard with a new deck, perfect for entertaining. The property extends well beyond the privacy fence where there's even more space ideal for a bonfire, walk in the woods or tending to your own backyard chicken coop! (chicken coop can be removable at the buyer's request). Conveniently located just minutes from EMU, St. Joseph Hospital, and major freeways, this home has it all.
