1303 N Congress Street Nestled on a double lot in the charming, tree-lined streets of Normal Park, this inviting bungalow blends classic architectural charm with modern updates. Hardwood floors and cozy fireplace greet you as you flow seamlessly through gracefully arched doorways into the formal dining room, perfect for entertaining, to the recently renovated kitchen, boasting updated cabinetry, countertops, and appliances and convenient mudroom with additional storage. 3 main floor bedrooms including one off the living room with its own half bath and two others with full bath. Bonus 4th bedroom upstairs with area that could be finished for even more living space. The finished basement expands the living space, offering a versatile living space, along with a full workshop and bonus workout room. Enjoy the privacy of the fully fenced backyard with gardens from the deck off the dining room or from the delightful three-seasons porch. There is also a charming front porch with inviting chair swing. A detached two-car garage offers convenient parking and storage. This home offers the best of Normal Park living, with its walkability to both WiHi and Eastern Michigan University and just minutes away from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.
