8033 Eden Court Welcome home to this beautiful four bedroom colonial located in a wonderful, family-friendly community in sought after Partridge Creek North Sub. The largest model with 2900+ sq ft above grade with high ceilings and brand new carpet throughout. A two story foyer leads to a formal dining room and a spacious living room made for entertaining with a view through gas fireplace. Open concept living with a well designed kitchen with a large island and sizeable eat-in nook. A convenient built in desk with upper cabinets is just off the nook and there are more cabinets in the butler pantry. Off the living room and foyer there is a large family room with front yard views and French doors that lead to a presidential study with the second half of the view through gas fireplace. A handy powder room and laundry room complete the first floor. The massive master suite includes a cathedral ceiling, giant walk-in closet, soaker tub, and double sinks. Three more well sized bedrooms and a full bath complete the second floor. The backyard has a useful deck with built in bench. Tasteful landscaping completes the yard. For young families, this home is perfectly located with three parks in the subdivision with walking trails, near the Ford Heritage Park where the youth baseball and soccer leagues play, and close to a public library, eateries, and shopping. The home includes all the needed appliances including stainless steel appliances in the kitchen. Located on a cul-de-sac that is very private--this one is a true gem! Seize the opportunity to call this extraordinary property your home!
